⚠ xGI/90 normalized per-90 minutes (min. 0.5 game equivalent floor). Set-piece order sourced directly from official FPL `set_piece_menu` fields — "1st" denotes primary taker.

KEY UNDERLYING SIGNALS

Front-Three Firepower — ELITE TIER

Haaland (2.30 xG), Isak (2.29 xG), Calvert-Lewin (1.88 xG) — combined 6.47 xG across 3 games. All three are either the primary or backup penalty taker at their clubs.

Man Utd Set-Piece Monopoly — HIGH FLOOR

Bruno Fernandes holds every single set-piece duty (pens, FK, corners) at Man Utd. Mbeumo backs him up on all three — combined xGI of 5.54.

De Cuyper's Hidden Attacking Role — DIFFERENTIAL

A £4.7m defender posting 1.50 xG, 0.40 xA — numbers that rival most midfielders. 2nd in line for Brighton corners.

Tzolis Minutes Security — ROTATION RISK

Averaging only 60 minutes per start (subbed off early twice). Lowest xGI/90 of any starting midfielder in your XI — monitor Arsenal's rotation before committing captaincy.

STRATEGIC WARNINGS & THE GW4 DECISION TREE

⚠ The Manchester Derby Collision (GW4: MCI vs MUN, FDR 4 both sides)

4 PLAYERS EXPOSED

You own 4 players colliding in one fixture: Haaland (MCI) directly against Shaw, Bruno Fernandes, and Mbeumo (all MUN). Goals in this match will cannibalize your own points — a Haaland goal likely means a blank for Shaw's clean sheet bonus, and vice versa. This is a natural hedge, not a disaster, but don't expect a repeat of GW3's simultaneous returns.

Enzo Le Fée's Fixture Wall

SELL-HIGH WINDOW

After his 8-point haul: GW4 vs Arsenal (H) [FDR 4], then GW5 vs Man City (A) [FDR 5]. Back-to-back nightmare fixtures right after peak sale value — the textbook sell-high window.

Isak & De Cuyper Fixture Runs

GREEN LIGHTS

Isak: FUL(H)[2] → BOU(A)[3] — keep captaincy in rotation. De Cuyper: COV(A)[2] — another attacking-fullback payday likely.

GW4 Transfer Roadmap — Two Paths

DECISION POINT

Plan A — Roll the Transfer: Bank the FT into GW5 (2 FT total), keeping flexibility to react to Man Utd derby team news and Le Fée's form before committing.

Plan B — Sell Le Fée Now: Move him on ahead of his brutal ARS/MCI fixture swing. Realistic replacement targets in the £5-6m bracket: Vitaly Janelt (frees £0.9m, proven DefCon threat) or Antoine Semenyo (needs extra funds, better fixture run at MCI).
