model points still to come (pre-match model, unchanged)

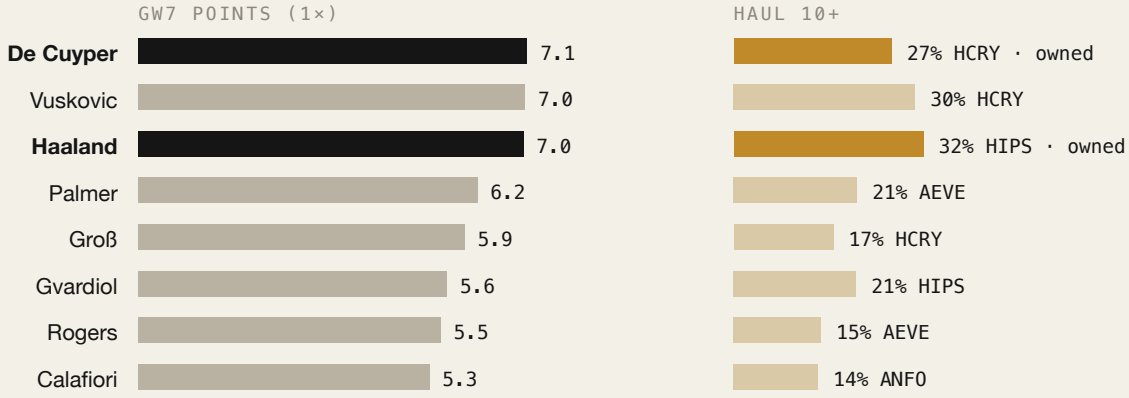

Haaland counts once for all three of you, so he can't change the order. What decides 1st is Thomas (and Slater if he comes off the bench) against Tarkowski, Gvardiol and Szoboszlai. You need about 11 more points than Bart's three.

The "what if" numbers use official GW6 points from the FPL event-live feed. Points still to come use the same pre-match model as the GW6 plan, so the gameweek is judged against what was expected, not what happened afterwards.
